that the property is shielded from the coastal winds. This makes it an idyllic haven and jewel of the hinterland.

A private tree-lined drive leads to the rustic two-bedroom home, a canvas for potential. The large timber verandah overlooking the in-ground pool serves as the perfect vantage point to appreciate the expansive views of the Byron Shire hinterland and the lush farmland enveloping the property. This vista is not just a sight to behold; it's an immersive experience that sets this property apart.

The open plan living area is graced by a fireplace and seamlessly connects to a well-equipped gas kitchen which creates a cozy and inviting atmosphere. Multiple sheds, a chicken coop, a single carport, a water tank, and a stone storage hut add practical elements to the property, creating opportunities for additional spaces that seamlessly integrate with the unparalleled natural landscape.

Positioned on the eastern side of Old Byron Bay Road, mere minutes away from the renowned Harvest restaurant and deli, with quick access to Bangalow and Byron Bay just 13 minutes away, the location combines solitude with the convenience of nearby amenities.

Additionally, a second dwelling opportunity awaits below, featuring an old sandstone structure.

This property presents a renovator's dream with unparalleled views of the Byron hinterland, shielded from southerly winds.

This property must be inspected to appreciate its unique magic and what it has to offer.
